

RUBICON CAPITAL ADVISORS ("RCA") Disclosures

This notification is for informational purposes and does not require any action on your part.

FINRA Rule 2266 and NYSE Rule 409A

RCA is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). FINRA Rule 2266 require RCA to disclose SIPC Contact Information. SIPC plays an important role in the overall system of investor protection in the United States by, in certain specified situations, restoring funds to investors with assets in the hands of bankrupt and otherwise financially troubled brokerage firms. When a brokerage firm is closed due to bankruptcy or other financial difficulties and customer assets are missing, SIPC steps in as quickly as possible and, within certain limits, works to return customers' cash, stock, and other securities. You may obtain more information about SIPC, including a brochure entitled How SIPC Protects You, by contacting SIPC at:

Securities Investor Protection Corporation

1667 K Street, N.W. Suite 1000

Washington, D.C. 20006

Phone: (202) 371-8300

Email: asksipc@sipc.org

You may also visit SIPC's website at www.sipc.org.

FINRA Regulation Public Disclosure Program

RCA is required by FINRA Rules to provide you with information about the availability of information through FINRA's Public Disclosure Program. The investor brochure may be obtained via the FINRA Web Site at www.finra.org or through the FINRA Public Disclosure Program Hotline Number at (800) 289-9999.

FINRA Rule 2261 Disclosure of Financial Condition to Customers

RCA will make available, upon request, a statement of financial condition as disclosed in its most recent balance sheet prepared either in accordance with the Firm's usual practice or as required by any state or federal securities laws, or any rule or regulation thereunder.

New Account Opening Procedures / Customer Identification Program (CIP)

The Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 ("USA Patriot Act") was enacted to strengthen the United States government's ability to combat terrorist financing and money laundering. An essential component of the USA Patriot Act requires financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person or entity with an account relationship at a financial institution.

If you are an individual and carry out transactions with RCA, the following information will be collected:

- i. Name
- ii. Date of birth
- iii. Address
- iv. Identification number:
 - o U.S. citizen: taxpayer identification number (Social Security number or employer identification number)
 - o Non-U.S. citizen: taxpayer identification number; passport number and country of issuance; alien identification card number; or government-issued identification showing nationality, residence and a photograph of you.

You may also need to show your driver's license or other identifying documents.

If you are a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity opening accounts, RCA will ask for

- i. Name
- ii. Street address (either principal place of business, a local office or other physical location),
- iii. U.S. taxpayer identification number, or if not organized or a resident in the United States or filing U.S. income tax returns, the number and country of issuance of any other government-issued document certifying the existence of the organization, and
- iv. Such other information or documents that we consider necessary to verify the entity's identity. Examples of additional information include articles of incorporation, a government-issued business license, a partnership agreement, or a trust instrument. We may also verify the entity's identity through other means.

If the above information is not provided, RCA may not be able to carry out transactions for you. If RCA has already begun an engagement, they may have to close it.

Business Continuity Plan

RCA has an established Business Continuity Plan ("BCP") that includes systems and procedures for backup and recovery of mission critical systems / data, alternate communications with customers / employees and alternate physical locations.

RCA's BCP is designed to address the effects of various significant business disruptions ("SBDs"), whether internal (e.g., affecting a RCA building) or external (e.g., affecting a business district, city or region in which RCA conducts business), that may be caused by a number of foreseeable scenarios. RCA's BCP includes a crisis management framework as well as a number of contingency sites and plans to address both internal and external SBDs.

If you cannot reach us as you usually do at: (212) 974-2610, you can reach us at our secondary phone number: (281) 419-6030.

If you cannot reach anyone at either of those numbers, please contact: Nick Melton at (917) 405-0046 or Deirdre Patten at (281) 838-5408. All RCA operational facilities are equipped for resumption of business. Regarding all circumstances within our control, RCA's recovery time objective for business resumption is six (6) hours, depending upon the availability of external resources.

RCA's policy is to respond to all SBDs by focusing on:

- Safeguarding employees' lives, customer assets and Firm property
- Making timely and prudent financial and operational assessments
- Quickly recovering and resuming essential business operations within hours, and if not feasible, the next business day
- Protecting the Firm's books and records
- Allowing RCA customers to transact business

If you would like a copy of the full plan, please contact your RCA representative.
